It may feel like November is still a long way off, but Election Day will be here before we know it. In just a few short weeks, voters across Iowa will decide the future of our communities, our schools, our healthcare system, and the direction of our state.

This campaign has always been about listening to the people of House District 99 and fighting for practical solutions that put Southeast Iowa families first. Every door knocked, every phone call made, every conversation shared, and every vote cast brings us one step closer to building the Iowa we know is possible.

Now is the time to make a plan!

Make Sure You're Ready to Vote

✅ Enter your ZIP and find every race in your area

✅ Iowa registration information, polling places, and mail ballots

✅ Check your voter registration and polling location

✅ Learn about absentee requirements. Any registered voter in Iowa may request to vote their ballot absentee. Absentee is the term used to describe any ballot that is not voted at the polls on Election Day.

Important Iowa Election Dates

August 25: First day county auditors may accept absentee ballot requests.

October 14: Absentee voting begins.

October 19: Deadline to request an absentee ballot to be mailed to you.

November 2: Last day to vote absentee in person at your county auditor's office.

November 3: Election Day! Vote at your assigned precinct polling location.

The most important thing you can do between now and November 3 is making a plan to vote and encourage your friends, family, neighbors, and coworkers to do the same.

In the meantime, join me at an upcoming event!

Saved by the Ballot: 90s Trivia Fundraiser

Sunday, September 20th, 1-4pm @ Corked 101

Hosted by comedian Anna Short, this one-of-a-kind fundraiser will feature trivia covering 90s music, movies, television, sports, and pop culture. Every ticket helps fuel our grassroots campaign and brings us closer to victory in November.

Change Starts With Us

Real change doesn't begin in the State Capitol. It begins in our neighborhoods, our schools, our workplaces, and around our kitchen tables.

Government is meant to represent the people, but that can only happen when people choose to represent themselves. When we speak up, get involved, and refuse to let others decide our future for us, that's when communities become movements and movements create lasting change.

This campaign is not about one person. It's about all of us. It's about neighbors helping neighbors, communities finding their voice, and everyday people coming together around the belief that Southeast Iowa deserves to be heard.

We've built incredible momentum, but there's still work to do between now and November 3.

Every conversation matters. Every volunteer matters. Every voter matters. The strongest movements are built one person at a time, and there are countless ways to be part of this one:

- Attend an upcoming event
- Knock doors or make phone calls
- Host a gathering in your community
- Display a yard sign
- Share campaign content on social media
- Invite friends and family to get involved
- Make a contribution to help us reach more voters

No action is too small. Every step forward helps build a stronger, more engaged community and reminds those in power who they work for.

Together, we can prove that when people show up, speak out, and work together, real change is possible.

With gratitude,

Jennifer Kirkman
