Early voting is open. Now it's your turn.

For months, we've knocked doors, made phone calls, attended events, listened to our neighbors, shared ideas, and talked about the future we want for Southeast Iowa. Now the most important part is here: GO VOTE!

You don't have to wait until Election Day on Tuesday, November 3rd to make your voice heard. Iowa's early in-person voting period runs through Monday, November 2nd. Voting early allows you to skip the lines and avoid last minute hiccups preventing you from making it to the ballot box.

How do I vote early?

You can cast your ballot early at your county auditor's office or at a satellite location, if available. Your local election office is always going to have the best and most accurate information. Look at their website and social media to learn more.

Des Moines County voters will have a satellite voting opportunity in West Burlington tomorrow, Thursday, October 22nd at Southeastern Community College Room 225 from 12-8pm. All Des Moines County ballot styles will be available at this location, and voter registration forms will be available for people who need to register or update their registration within the county.

When you vote early in person, you have to complete and return your ballot at the voting location. You cannot take it home to finish later, so brush up on what will be on your ballot before you go!

What should I bring?

If you're already registered at your current address, bring an approved form of identification. Iowa accepts several forms of voter ID, including:

- Iowa driver's license
- Iowa non-operator ID
- U.S. passport
- U.S. military or veteran ID
- Iowa Voter Identification Card
- Qualifying tribal ID

Not registered or recently moved?

Don't assume it's too late! Iowa allows eligible voters to register and vote during the early-voting period. If you need to establish your current residence, bring an acceptable photo ID and proof of residence, such as:

- Residential lease
- Utility or cell phone bill
- Bank statement
- Paycheck
- Government check or document
- Property tax statement

Learn more about Iowa's Election Day and same-day registration requirements from the Iowa Secretary of State.

Make a plan

Don't just tell yourself you're going to vote. Pick your day, pick your location, and put it on your calendar. Then invite someone else to go with you. After you've voted, share it, talk about it, and encourage someone else to make their voice heard, too. Democracy works when we participate in it.

Voting is how we bring Iowa's future to life. Don’t rely on someone else to create the change you want to see. Go out there and vote for it.

Iowa’s future is in your hands

Do we invest in our public schools and give every child the opportunity to succeed?

Do we protect access to affordable, high-quality healthcare close to home?

Do we confront our cancer rates, protect our land, and clean up our water?

Do we strengthen our small businesses and create communities where young people want to stay, return, raise families, and build their futures?

Do we spend our time solving the problems that actually affect Iowans every day, or do we keep allowing division and political distractions to stand in the way of progress?

You get to help answer those questions. Your vote is your voice. Your vote is your opportunity to demand something better. Your vote is how change goes from something we talk about to something we accomplish.

Two weeks! Let’s finish what we started.

Voting is the most important thing you can do, but this campaign still needs your help making it all the way through November 3. I humbly ask you to:

DONATE. Every cent helps us reach more voters during these critical final days.

ORGANIZE. Get your friends together and make a voting plan, host a voting event, help people get to the polls. Every ballot matters.

SHARE. Keep sharing my posts, videos, website, and campaign message. Tell people why you're supporting this campaign. A personal conversation with someone you know can accomplish something no advertisement can.

VOTE. Most importantly, cast your ballot. Then help someone else cast theirs.

We have spent this campaign talking about putting PEOPLE first. About practical leadership. About listening to one another. About protecting our schools, healthcare, water, communities, constitutional rights, and the future we're leaving our children -- but I can't create that future alone -- you're the one who makes it possible.

Thank you for your support and for your contribution to our democracy!

With gratitude,

Jennifer Kirkman
