We did it !

I don't even know where to begin except with two words: thank you.

Last night, a blue tidal wave washed over our country and I'm endlessly grateful to have been a part of it.

Thank you for believing in this campaign, putting up signs, volunteering your time, talking to your neighbors, sharing our message, donating, showing up, casting your vote, and electing me to serve as the next representative for Iowa House District 99.

Now, please take a moment to exhale, celebrate, rest, and more than anything, feel hopeful for the future.

But know that this is just the beginning.

We gained 11 seats in the Iowa House, but Republicans still hold a 56-to-44 majority. We can't sit back and bask in this win for too long, because the real work of fighting for a better quality of life for all Iowans starts here.

This election didn't erase the challenges our families, public schools, healthcare system, economy, and environment are facing. There will be plenty of challenges and difficult conversations ahead, but I am fired up and ready to take them on.

My campaign promise rings true more than ever: I will show up, I will listen, I will ask questions, I will find solutions, and I will put PEOPLE first!

Thank you, District 99, from the bottom of my heart,

Jennifer Kirkman
